Online Safety Gameplay and Emotions

There's a lot of buzz and talk about the new Fifa game coming soon, many children reporting that they have it on pre-order.

It's easy for gaming to get out of hand: the excitement, the fun and the socialisation. THIS article, written in 2019 by Andy Robertson, a self-confessed gaming geek and freelance journalist, gives some good information around gameplay and emotions.

A few reminders...

Please, please...

- be vigilant and call the helpline for advice if your child is displaying any covid symptoms
- remember to physically distance, where possible, when dropping off/ collecting children on school grounds/ at the gate
- ensure each item of your child's clothing is labelled clearly with their name.

Thank You!

Thank you from Mrs Barker

I just want to take the time to thank you all for your wonderful support at the dress-down day at the end of last term. £161 was raised and has been added to Macmillan Jersey Cancer charity. Many of us have friends and family who have been affected cancer and the charity do an amazing job to help those in need.

I like a cycle, as some will know, but this was the biggest cycle challenge I have ever done, 550k over four days, starting in Lyon and ending in Marseille. We arrived in Lyon to rain but couldn't have been luckier as the next day the sun came out and stayed with us for the trip. We cycled through beautiful lavender fields, vineyards, up and down hills, including the infamous Mont Ventoux, a brutal 1900m climb to the top! I loved the challenge and am so pleased I did this with an amazing group of people who all helped each other to complete this challenge.
